Family History Month      October 2008 & American Archives Month

Celebrating the Cultural Heritage of Indiana

This October the Indiana State Library has several family history-related events and activities, all dedicated to researching family history and exploring the cultural heritage of our great state.

The Indiana State Library and Indiana State Archives will offer 10 FREE programs on a variety of family history topics. In addition to the five events on Family History Day, the State Library will offer five family orientation tours throughout October. These tours offer insight into the different family history resources located at the State Library. Tours are scheduled for the following dates (all times Eastern):

October 2, 2008 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

October 9, 2008 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

October 14, 2008 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

October 21, 2008 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

October 30, 2008 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

Registration is required for all October programs. Please call (317) 232-3689 or email augonzalez@library.IN.gov to register.

Other Cultural Heritage Resources:

Indiana Memory (www.indianamemory.IN.gov): A gateway to Indiana's largest digital collections of significant cultural and historical records.

The VINE (www.vine.IN.gov): A statewide database composed of local history and vital records from Indiana libraries, historical societies, genealogy societies, and related organizations.
